

COVID-19 Quarantine Plan for Temporary Foreign Workers

Anyone arriving to Canada must quarantine for 14 days. This includes Temporary Foreign Workers. During quarantine, workers are to remain two meters apart at all times, must remain isolated from other people on the farm, may not leave the property (except to seek medical attention) and must not work.

A quarantine plan is required to be submitted to Southwestern Public Health (SWPH) at least two weeks prior to worker arrival for a Public Health Inspector's review and approval.

Business Name:

Owner/Grower Name:

Phone Number:

Arrival Information

Anticipated date of worker arrival
Number of workers arriving
Will there be additional workers arriving throughout the season? If yes, list the dates and number of workers

Housing

Provide the addresses of each bunkhouse being used and the number of workers being housed in each
Describe how 2m distance will be maintained in the bedroom areas
Describe how 2m distance will be maintained in the kitchen/ common areas

Supplies

Describe how each of the following will be provided and restocked.

Groceries and other essentials
Cleaning and sanitizing products	<input type="checkbox"/> Cleaning Log Sheet provided
	List of products provided:
Laundry services	<input type="checkbox"/> Laundry is on site

Health

Describe how daily health checks will be completed and verified *ensure health checks are documented
--	--

Any worker who develops symptoms, or fails a health check, must immediately isolate and SWPH must be contacted for further direction.

Where will the worker be isolated?
How will you transport them to the isolation location (if offsite)?

Submit a sketch that outlines the two meter spacing in the bedrooms and common areas. Note that the kitchen may have to be accessed in shifts to allow for proper distancing. Email your completed form to your inspector or environmentalhealth@swpublichealth.ca.